

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

BONNE TERRE

Albert East spent Wednesday in Flat River with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Northcutt and son spent Sunday in Leadwood with friends.

Jasper Falk and John Nay spent Wednesday in Flat River.

T. L. Ferguson was a business visitor in Flat River Thursday.

Mrs. Geo. McClure spent Monday in Flat River the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Kennedy.

C. P. Wilkison was a visitor in Farmington several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brewer and children, of Farmington, spent Sunday with Mrs. uthur Poston and husband.

Beatrice and Thomas David, of French Village, visited friends here Saturday.

Alphonso and Bernard AuBuchon, of French Village, were guests of relatives here Sunday.

John Cash spent Friday here with friends.

Shelton Horn spent Saturday in Farmington on business.

Miss Beatrice Meyer has accepted a position in the Ark store.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Rawson spent Saturday and Sunday in Melzo with the latter's home folks.

Effie and Reva Counts, of Hazel Run, spent Saturday here on business.

Maud and Leta Son spent Monday in Flat River.

Hubert Reynolds, of DeSoto, spent Wednesday here with friends.

Frank Marchand spent Monday and Tuesday in Leadwood on business.

Mrs. Henrietta Koester was born in Germany Feb. 4, 1849. She came to America when a young girl. She was married to Karl Koester Aug. 9, 1871, and to this union ten children were born, five of whom survive. They are, Herman, of St. Louis; Mrs. Henrietta Marchessito and Mrs. Gustine Poston, of Detroit; Mich. Karl, and Mrs. Christine AuBuchon, of this city. Funeral services were held Monday at the home by Rev. I. L. Eakers of the Methodist church, and interment in the Bonne Terre cemetery. She was a member of the Rebekah lodge.

Geo. Spain was a Flat River visitor Saturday.

Mr. Crisswell spent Monday and Tuesday in Flat River on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright, of Farmington, have established a tailor shop here and will reside here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Murphy, of Big River, spent Saturday here with friends.

Henry Reed, of DeSoto, attended the Legion dance here Friday evening.

Mrs. Stella Murphy, of Big River, spent Saturday here with relatives.

Wm. Wilkinson, of Melzo, spent Wednesday here on business.

Louis and Mildred Goodman spent Sunday in Desloge with their parents.

Wm. Moon and Val Smith of Primrose, spent Friday here with friends.

Albert Jones, of Melzo, spent Saturday here on business.

Katherine Hoelzel spent the week-end in Melzo with her parents.

Anna Overall was guest at the home of her parents in Farmington Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Thurman, of Silver Springs, was a business visitor here Saturday.

Several from here attended the funeral of Frank Locke at Silver Springs Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Poston and children and Miss Hazel Poston spent Tuesday in Silver Springs.

Mrs. Wm. Whitehead and daughter, Dorothy, of Hazel Run, spent Tuesday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cunningham entertained a number of friends with a party in honor of their daughter, Miss Louise, the occasion being her birthday. The house was tastefully decorated. Various games were played and refreshments were served. All wished Miss Louise many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Monroe Peterson, of French Village, spent Wednesday here with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Pratte.

Mrs. Theo. Tenholder on last Wednesday afternoon entertained the Sewing Circle. Those present were: Mrs. Luther Poston, Mrs. Margaret Bouchard, Mrs. Chris Dachwald, Mrs. Joseph Falk and Mrs. Tenholder. Refreshments were served and all had a splendid time.

Laura Thurman spent Saturday and Sunday in Silver Springs with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman, and family.

Mrs. Martin Donnelly and little daughter, of Silver Springs, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her sisters, Mrs. Boehle and Mrs. Sophia Van Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lawrence and family, of Flat River, spent Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mauler, of Evansville, Ind., arrived here this week for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Neubrand and family.

Clifford Counts, of French Village, was a business visitor here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall spent Sunday in French Village with relatives.

Alvin Hall, who is attending school in Farmington, spent Sunday with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, of Desloge, spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Buhrmaster, of Flat River, spent Sunday here with her mother, Mrs. Livingston, and family.

Thos. Cook spent Monday and Tuesday in Desloge.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nelms, of Elvins, spent Sunday with Mrs. Margaret Cooksey.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Blackwell, of Desloge, spent Sunday here.

Edison Rinehart, of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives.

The Married Ladies' Sodality gave their pinocle party on Monday evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. E. Ney, Louise Steinmetz and Mrs. Chas. Chandler. Sandwiches and coffee were served.

Wilford AuBuchon spent Monday evening in Flat River with friends.

Miss Nellie Hoskings, of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoskings.

Gertrude McMahon spent the first of the week in St. Louis with friends.

Rev. Sevel and Rev. Moser were in Farmington Wednesday.

Myrna Blackwell, little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blackwell, died at the home of her parents last week, being ill only a short time. Besides the parents, she leaves two sisters. Interment took place Sunday in the Bonne Terre cemetery.

Miss Lucille Hatcher and Andrew McCoy, of Desloge, were married in Farmington Saturday. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hatcher, of this city, and has spent the greater part of her life here. They will make their home in Desloge.

Mrs. Ruth Gillespie was a guest in Farmington Thursday.

Herman Lauth spent Friday in St. Louis on business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Dearing spent the first of the week in St. Louis.

Myrtle Ward, of Henrietta, Mo., is here at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Chas. Ward, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Westcott, of Desloge, spent Wednesday afternoon here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Westcott.

While at work last Sunday, Harry Herman was thrown from a mule and rendered unconscious. He was taken to the Bonne Terre hospital and at present is getting along nicely.

David O'Farrell, who for several weeks has been very ill with pneumonia, is much improved at this writing.

Chas. Wilkins, who for some time has been employed by the Meyer-Schmidt Grocer Co., resigned his position and departed Saturday for St. Louis, where he will locate.

Gertrude Allen, of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ode Gordon and daughter, Lillian, spent the week-end in St. Louis.

Dr. Wolff, of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with friends.

Joseph Hodap, of Herculaneum, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. Christine Weber, and other relatives.

Firman Ward, of Detroit, Mich., was called here to the bedside of his mother, Mrs. Chas. Ward.

Mrs. Robt. Womack and baby, of St. Francis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. Albert Williams and daughters, Dorothy and Alberta, spent Wednesday in Silver Springs with relatives.

Misses Aldine and Lorene Palmer, of Doe Run, are spending several days here with their uncle, Stephen Gidley, and family.

Genevieve AuBuchon, of St. Louis, spent Monday here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. H. Carron and daughter, Verma, spent Saturday in Flat River.

John Tierney was a visitor in Leadwood Wednesday.

Maud Straughn spent Monday and Tuesday in St. Louis.

BISMARCK

T. H. Coxy was in St. Louis a few days last week on a business mission.

J. T. Stephens was an Ellington visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Eva Crump and nephew, Alvin Hughes, were Cherryville visitors Sunday afternoon.

Ernest Heizenmann was a St. Louis business visitor last week.

M. J. Eidson is at present visiting hi family here. He has just returned from Manila, Ark., where he had been auctioneering the sale of a car load of horses.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Pirtle and family have returned to their home at Glen Allen after a visit of a few days at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. F. Bone, and family.

Miss Myra Belknap spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. F. H. DeGaire, of Fredericktown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Denton, of Caledonia, were visitors near here Wednesday.

Johnny Houck spent the week-end with relatives and friends at Graniteville.

Miss Marie Minoghaun, who is attending school in St. Louis, was home the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Hy Boyer. Mrs. Boyer accompanied her to her home in St. Louis Sunday afternoon to spend a few days.

Mrs. Clarence Elsmann, of St. Louis, is visiting at the home of her brother, Sam Burch, and family.

Messdames Auburn and Monte Edmonds spent the first of the week with relatives and friends in Ironton.

Jesse Wood, of Elvins, spent the first of the week with friends and relatives here.

Miss Loren Wood, of Ellington, spent the past week here with Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Carter.

Mrs. P. J. Gault was called to Flat River Friday on account of the serious illness of her brother, L. E. Pierson, who was dangerously ill with pneumonia. Mr. Pierson gradually grew worse until he passed into the great beyond that evening. The funeral services were held Sunday. He leaves a number of brothers and sisters to mourn his going, besides a wife and young child. We join with the many friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

A number of members of the local Epworth League attended the County meeting at Bonne Terre Friday night, and report a fine meeting.

James Reynolds and Everet Smith, of Belgrade, were business visitors here Thursday.

A number of people from here attended a box supper at Sherlock Wednesday night. A very enjoyable time is reported.

Sam Burch was a Doe Run visitor Thursday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Eaton moved their household goods here the first of last week, and are at present staying at the Bismarck hotel. It is being rumored here that he will have his hat in the ring for the Democratic nomination for Congress. We believe "Doc" will be able to "breathe the tape" ahead of the rest in the congressional race, due to his popularity throughout the district, and also his record as Supt. of State Hospital No. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stout, of Doe Run, spent the latter part of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burch and family.

Mrs. Newman, one of the teachers in the Elvins high school, visited the school here Friday morning. She passed some good remarks on the work being done in our high school.

Dent McKinney, of Bellview, was a Bismarck visitor Friday.

L. C. Woodrow came home from Boon, Colo., Thursday night, where he has been employed as manager of a ranch for the past few months. The family will not move there as they had planned to do. Mr. Woodrow says there is no place like home—Missouri.

Miss Virginia Castleman was a St. Louis visitor the latter part of the week.

L. H. Butler, of Cape Girardeau, spent the latter part of the week here on business and visiting friends.

Gilbert Wallis, of Des Arc, spent the latter part of the week here with his sister, Mrs. H. L. Strader, and family.

Henry Stapp, of Leadwood, spent a few hours with friends here Sunday. He came here to meet his daughter and Miss Grace Wood, who were returning from a visit of a few days with friends in St. Louis.

Robert Edgar, of Ironton, was a Bismarck visitor Sunday.

Norman Downard was a Potosi visitor the first of the week.

A number of witnesses from here were subpoenaed for the Carr trial, which is now being held at Potosi.

Rolla Garrett, who is attending school at Southeast Missouri Teachers' College, came home Saturday for a visit with home folks. He will teach a week in one of the rural schools as his college requires him to obtain a certain amount of experience.

A number of our citizens were very much surprised Wednesday afternoon, when the fire alarm began blowing. Every one began inquiring as to the whereabouts of the fire, and in a little while they found it to be in a pile of telegraph poles, near the pump house. The fire was soon extinguished. The fire is supposed to have been caused from sparks from the handle factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Wallen arrived here Saturday from Omaha, Neb., where they spent a greater part of the fall and winter. Mr. Wallen will have charge of the bus line. They will reside at Farmington.

Isiah Shaner returned home Wednesday from St. Louis, where he had been receiving medical treatment at a hospital, where he recently had a leg amputated.

Mrs. Birdie Barker returned to her home at St. Louis Thursday after a visit of a week at the home of her brother, Otto P. Mpleton, and family.

The Senior class visited the wreck at Irondale Wednesday.

Misses Gertrude and Mildred Sherill were among the many Bismarck people to visit the wreck at Irondale Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hood, of Bonne Terre, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Beard, and family.

Edgar Hill and Chas. Kettinger were Flat River callers Wednesday night.

Miss Ruth Ruddock, of St. Louis, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Lashley and family.

W. W. Turner, of Caledonia, was a Bismarck visitor Thursday.

Mrs. J. H. Black, of Elvins, spent the past week-end here with her mother, Mrs. L. N. Beard, and family.

Miss Ethel Conway, of Arcadia, spent the week here the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joe Reagan, and family.

Coroner C. J. Hill was called to Leadwood Sunday, where he held a double inquest over the bodies of John W. Adams, who was killed by falling into the shaft, and Isaac Belmer, who was thrown against the top of the tower by the cage.

Messdames Jay Browne and J. Hood and Miss Nadine Norwine, of Bonne Terre, spent the day Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lucy.

H. E. Carter returned home Friday evening from a visit of a few weeks in the state of Texas, he having gone there for the betterment of his health.

The Bellview chapter of the Eastern Star Lodge visited to Bismarck chapter Friday night. The Bismarck people royally entertained their hosts. A general good time is reported.

Prof. J. Clyde Akers, of Farmington, attended lodge here Friday night.

Mrs. Jeff Simms and son, John, and daughter, Miss Mae, attended the funeral of "Uncle King" Williams at Farmington Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. S. C. Biffle went to Farmington Tuesday for a visit of a few days with relatives and friends.

Wm. Gale, who is attending school at St. Louis University, came home Monday night for a visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Gale. He has a forced vacation on account of eye trouble.

Mrs. John Mason, of St. Louis, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wood and family.

PRIMROSE

Mrs. John Rawson and little son, Robert, were visitors at the home of Wm. A. Moon Tuesday.

W. Holman made a trip to Bonne Terre Tuesday.

Miss Blackwell, of Moontown, was a visitor here Wednesday morning.

Andy Snyder was a Bonne Terre visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Murphy and little son, of near Big River, were Bonne Terre visitors the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Annie Cash and little son, Albert, spent the fore part of last week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Moon.

Charley Mosier transacted business in Bonne Terre Tuesday.

Henry Lawson, who has employment in Herculaneum, spent the week-end here with relatives and friends.

Fenton Roberts transacted business in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Delbert Pettes was guest of Ferman Moon Sunday.

John Murphy, of Moontown, was in Bonne Terre last week.

Samuel Jones spent Saturday night at the home of John Pettes.

John Rawson was a business visitor in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Miss Nellie Moon was in Herculaneum Sunday.

John Pettes attended to business in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Elmer Rawson visited Fenton Rawson Sunday.

John Cash, of Big River, was in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Henry Lawson, of Herculaneum, visited at the home of Wm. A. Moon Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Moon and Mrs. Samuel Whittier were shopping in Bonne Terre last week.

Dan Pettes made a trip to Bonne Terre Saturday.

Miss Elsie Rawson is visiting at the home of her brother, Leathel Rawson, in Bonne Terre, at this writing.

Thos. Rawson, of Prospect, was a visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rawson, the latter part of last week.

Grover and Wilbur Jones, of near Bonne Terre, made a trip to that city Saturday.

Rev. C. C. Halley filled his regular appointment at the Lebanon church Saturday and Sunday.

John Blackwell, of Prospect, motored to Bonne Terre Saturday.

Morris Jones transacted business in Bonne Terre the latter part of the week.

Miss Ethel Cartwright, of Bourbon, Mo., who has been helping Prof. Andrew Bryson conduct a singing school at the Roughly school, spent the latter part of the week here with friends.

She returned to her home Sunday.

Miss Nellie Moon was a visitor at the home of Willis Moon Saturday evening.

Mr. Blackwell, of Moontown, motored to Bonne Terre the latter part of last week.

Robt. Lawson transacted business in Bonne Terre Monday.

L. Williams motored to Bonne Terre last week.

Mrs. Ida Jones was guest at the home of Willis Moon Monday.

VALLE MINES

Mr. and Mrs. James Bunt visited at the home of Wm. Heaton Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Hazel Poston, of Bonne Terre, visited relatives in Silver Springs Tuesday.

Wm. Meyers, of Farmington, made a business trip here Tuesday.

Miss Elsie Heaton was a Silver Springs visitor Tuesday.

Fenton Miller and Lee Hammock were in Bonne Terre Tuesday.

Ellis Grandjean and John Woolen visited Roughly brothers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bunt visited at the home of R. H. Rowe Friday and Saturday.

Emmet, Edmond and Perry Roughly were Bonne Terre visitors Saturday.

Miss Thelma Horn visited at the home of Wm. Heaton Sunday.

Mrs. Edw. Tinfall and children, of Festus, visited at the home of David Frazier Saturday.

Mrs. F. Cushman, of St. Louis, visited her husband Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Sadie Richardson, of St. Louis, visited at the home of her parents here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ode Hamon visited him other several days this week.

Miss Edna Degonia visited her parents in Bonne Terre from Friday until Monday.

Susie Richardson, Carrie Shannon

and Carl Richardson, were Valle Mines visitors Sunday.

Roy Richardson visited Frank Curtoise Sunday.

John Hoffee visited his family at Hillsboro from Friday until Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Whitesell, of St. Louis, visited her husband and mother Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Elsie Heaton visited at the home of Mrs. Emily Grandjean Wednesday and Thursday.

Lee Douglas visited at the home of H. E. Thurman Sunday.

Mrs. Bessie Nash visited at the home of H. C. Rhodes Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ratty and little son, of near Oak Vale, visited relatives here Sunday.

Tony and Carl Horn visited at the home of Mrs. Emily Grandjean Wednesday.

Jack Brown visited Roughly brothers Wednesday.

Several from here attended the dance at the home of John Layhay Saturday night.

Miss Alberta Turley was guest of Miss Josephine Turley Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Elsie Heaton visited her sister, Mrs. H. C. Rhode, Monday.

Welton Rozier, of St. Louis, visited at the home of A. Frazier Friday and Saturday.

Luther Turley made a business trip to Bonne Terre Saturday.

Miss Thelma Horn visited at the home of her parents Sunday.

Miss Gustine Turley is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Daniel Frazier.

Miss Della Turley, who has been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frazier, returned to her home Thursday.

Mrs. Effie Turley visited Mrs. Wm. Heaton Monday.

Walter Richardson and son, Carl, were Halifax visitors Wednesday.

Misses Ethel and Dora White, of Festus, visited their parents here Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Locke was born in the year of 1893, and departed this life at his home in Silver Springs Feb. 21, 1922, aged 29 years and 2 months. He leaves to mourn his death a mother and father, three sisters—Bessie, Hazel and Edith, two brothers—Orville and Marvin, and a host of friends. The remains were laid to rest in the Bunker cemetery Feb. 23rd. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

'Tis sweet to die and be with Jesus, 'Tis sweet to rest from toil and pain, 'Tis sweet to look beyond the conflict, When with the Savior we shall reign. 'Tis sweet to lay our armor down, And sweeter still to